

CONDITIONS IN MEXICO CAUSE GRAVE CONCERN

Private Reports Describe Situation as One of Anarchy and Oppression of Civilian Element.

MATTER LAID BEFORE WILSON

William Leaves Washington for Southern Republic to Confer with Authorities Regarding Establishment of Provisional Government.

WASHINGTON, October 8.—Consul John R. Silliman left here to-night for Mexico City, where he is expected to confer with the Mexican Constitutional authorities regarding the establishment of a provisional government.

The consul, who recently came to Washington from Mexico to confer with administration officials, will follow closely the wishes of President Wilson and other officials in dealing with the situation. He had been advised that the administration will remain neutral in the controversy between General Carranza and General Villá.

General Villá, commanding the border forces, telegraphed the War Department to-night that every possible step to protect Americans from danger of fire from the Maytorena-Hill forces in the battle at Naco, had been taken. He forwarded a message from Colonel Hatfield, commanding the Second Cavalry brigade at Douglas, Ariz., saying that the Maytorena-Hill forces in the battle at Naco, had been taken. He forwarded a message from Colonel Hatfield, commanding the Second Cavalry brigade at Douglas, Ariz., saying that the Maytorena-Hill forces in the battle at Naco, had been taken.

It became known to-night that for some time administration officials have been considering private reports from the unofficial sources of conditions in Mexico City, which describes the situation as one of anarchy and oppression of the civilian element. Whether this is owing to the indifference of the authorities or their inability to control the undisciplined element among the troops who came into the city with Carranza, is not stated. It is believed that Silliman has been instructed to use influence to bring about a cessation of these conditions. The reports are said to have given officials here deep concern, and to have been laid before the President.

NOT YET AGREED UPON

MATTERS FOR DISCUSSION EL PASO, TEXAS, October 8.—While no definite reports came to-day from the conference regarding the pending conference at Aguascalientes, it was apparent from the expressions of local officials, of both factions, that the Carranza and Villá delegates had not yet agreed upon matters to be discussed or the actual status of the meeting.

The Villá faction, it was said, held that the convention was to have been a meeting of all elements, to decide upon the matter of who should serve as Provisional President until the holding of elections.

The Carranza agents, on the contrary, insisted that the five delegates sent north from Mexico City merely formed a permanent peace commission, which would treat with Villá only regarding his insubordination to the Constitutional command-in-chief, that the Mexico City conference already had decided the matter of the provisional presidency by rejecting Carranza's resignation.

Jonas Marcuse, who has been ill at Stuart Circle Hospital for some time, was last night reported as resting comfortably. It was said that his condition was more satisfactory than it had been for several days.

Two Carolinians Arrested. J. C. Hudson and E. A. Richardson were last night arrested by Sergeant Waymack on a charge of being drunk and recklessly driving an automobile. At the First Police Station the men said they were from North Carolina and were attending the fair.

reported in perfect condition for practice. Stallings and his Braves to-night repeated statements made earlier in the week that the standard of play which carried them from last to first place in the National League was fast and steady enough to win the world's championship. Stallings appeared to be bubbling over with enthusiasm, and predicted his club would surprise the Athletics and their supporters. Connie Mack maintained his usual reserve, but said he expected to see the Athletics repeat their victory of a year ago.

In general, wagering, the local club bet top-heavy favorite. Few big bets have been recorded, but in the small wagering the Athletics have been quoted from 2 to 1 and 10 to 7. Most betting has been confined to the number of games to be played, and other similar wagers.

FIVE OR SIX GAMES. IS GENERAL OPINION. The general opinion is there will be one five or six games. Philadelphia betters offer 19 to 1 that the Athletics will win four straight; 5 to 4 that the Athletics will win the opening contest; 5 to 3 that Boston will not win four games, and even money that the Athletics will score more runs than the Athletics. Local sporting men claim there is less betting on the general result than in any series in recent years.

Activity in other respects, however, is far above normal. Although the forecast was for unsettled weather, with occasional rain on Friday, ticket speculators, bleacher fans and police were unusually busy to-night. Vendors appeared to have plenty of tickets for sale at prices far in excess of their face value. They asked and received $15 for acts of $25; $25 for $33 reservations and $40 for the coupons. While the National Commission members and out-of-town magnates were complaining they were unable to secure sufficient seats for themselves and friends, spectators were offering coupons for almost every section of the stadium.

Just how they obtained possession of them only the fraternity knew. Local fans charge that the police connived with the speculators in securing choice places in the line at the public sale on Wednesday, and Director Porter, of the Department of Public Safety has ordered an investigation as a result of complaints from speculators, and other ways facilitated the purchase of blocks of seats by these persons. It is said that nearly 8,000 seats were sold in less than five hours, and that the speculators obtained more than 50 per cent of the public sale coupons.

The National Commission also desired to know why its request for 1,500 seats was cut to 500, and the Boston club management was unable to purchase seats for either the families of the players or officers.

ATHLETICS THROWN OUT BY THEIR LANDLADY. Three Athletics promised their board of directors to keep tickets for the series some time ago. When they failed to make good the promise the landlady ordered them out of her house, bag and baggage. To-night they are sleeping at the home of a friend, three in a room.

The widespread interest in the series is demonstrated by the remarkable demand for seats in the press stand. Close to 300 have been noted to newspaper writers from all parts of the United States, Cuba, and even the Hawaiian Islands. Even in this department reservations were refused.

It is said by those in charge that had every application been filled, nearly 500 seats would have been necessary for reports and telegraphers.

The baseball correspondents were unanimous in the opinion that the present series was preceded by more wars and rumors of wars than any world's title contest since the National Commission took charge of the annual inter-league conflict in 1905. Late in the evening the correspondents were seated in the press box, but Connie Mack and John Shibe, business manager of the local club, had come to blows over the distribution of tickets. The club was emphatically denied by the club management.

At Shibe Park before midnight a line of more than 1,000 men and boys at the gates trailed away for several blocks, and was expected to be increased rapidly as soon as night broke by determined fans, who realized that a long vigil was necessary to secure a place among the lucky 4,000 bleacherites.

Owners of the houses overlooking the park were busy erecting grandstands on the roofs, but the police have announced that spectators will not be permitted to view the games from these hastily-erected structures.

The batting order will probably be as follows:

Boston—Moran, right field; Evers, second base; Connolly, left field; White, third base; Schmidt, first base; Deal, third base; Moranville, short stop; Goddy, catcher; Rudolph, pitcher.

Philadelphia—Murphy, right field; Oldring, left field; Collins, second base; Baker, third base; McInnis, first base; Strunk, center field; Barry, short stop; Schang, catcher; Bender, pitcher.

An hour after midnight the sky was clear, and there was a light breeze from the northwest. Notwithstanding these favorable indications for fair weather, the forecaster adhered to his prediction made early in the night—the threatening rain for the opening day of the world's series.

Rube Oldring, the Athletics' veteran outfielder, was arraigned to-day and held in bail for court on charges of desertion and nonsupport, preferred by his wife, Helen I. Oldring. All concerned in the case were extremely reticent when asked about the case.

Oldring's engagement to a New Jersey girl was announced a few days ago.

SUSPICIOUS CHARACTERS

Four Men Held Believed by Police to Be Pickpockets. C. M. Waterford, J. R. Cabell and George Davis, the men arrested at the Fair Grounds by Detective-Sergeants Wiley and Kellam yesterday, were yesterday ordered held for trial on October 16 by Police Justice Crutchfield. The men were not caught in the act, but their suspicious actions caused the officers to arrest them. They are technically charged with vagrancy.

The detectives believe that Cabell is the man for whom the authorities of Lynchburg and Nelson County are searching on several charges of vagrancy, and the matter will be taken up with them to-day by the local department. While their cases were being tried in Police Court yesterday, Kellam noticed a man in the crowd who had seen with the suspected pickpockets at the Fair Grounds. Kellam at once arrested him and sent him to the First Precinct Station to be held until arraigned in court this morning. At the station-house he gave his name as William Haley. All of the men represented themselves as being railroad men who had come here in search of work.

Reports Harness Stolen. Dr. N. N. Upshur, of 1103 West Franklin Street, yesterday reported to the police that his stable had been entered through a coal chute, and that a set of black harness had been stolen.

CLAYTON TRUST MEASURE IS AGREED TO BY HOUSE

Every Democrat, Many Republicans and Several Progressives Vote for Bill.

IT NOW GOES TO PRESIDENT

Only War Revenue and Philippine Measures Remain to Be Disposed of Before Administration's Legislative Program Is Completed.

WASHINGTON, October 8.—The anti-trust legislative program for this session of Congress was completed late to-day, when the conference report on the Clayton antitrust bill, already adopted by the Senate, was agreed to by the House, 244 to 54. Every Democrat and many of the Republicans voted for the bill. It now goes to the President.

Twenty-two Republicans and six Progressives voted with the solid Democratic membership for the report. With this measure out of the way, Congress has only the war revenue bill and the Philippine measure to dispose of to be ready for adjournment in accordance with the administration plan for the session. The House is expected to pass the Philippine bill, but it will not be considered before adjournment in the Senate.

Primarily, the Clayton bill, as finally enacted, fixes guilt upon individuals connected with corporations which violate the antitrust laws. It prohibits unfair price discrimination, interlocking directors of two or more competing corporations or of directors of railroad corporations with stock in other companies, and limits the interlocking of bank directors. It also prohibits the existence of holding companies which would substantially lessen competition, and forbids exclusive and tying contracts.

Provisions of the act liberalize the laws relating to injunction and contempt and exempt from prosecution under the antitrust laws agricultural, horticultural, fraternal and labor organizations.

ELECTED BISHOP

several years. He then went to Newport News, where he was rector of St. Paul's church. Several years ago he returned to Richmond to become assistant rector at St. James Church, where he served until the death of Rev. William Meade Clark, D. D., whom he succeeded as rector.

Mr. Darst is well qualified for the high office to which he has been called, and is eminently worthy to succeed such venerable bishops as Atkinson, Lyman, Watson and Conrad.

A probable successor to Mr. Darst, should he accept the call from North Carolina, has not been suggested.

While acting as secretary of the committee on arrangements at the Episcopal General Convention held in Richmond in 1907, Mr. Darst was highly praised for his splendid work and formed many lasting friendships. It was a matter of some comment that the Diocese of Eastern Carolina, when the position of bishop was last vacant, elected Bishop Strange, at that time rector of St. Paul's Church in this city.

MAY INTERCEDE

Corporation Commission May Appeal to Federal Authorities for Relief. The question of interceding in behalf of the Virginia railroads with the Interstate Commerce Commission, in the matter of securing certain changes in the freight rates fixed by the commission, so as to enable the railroads to compete on an equitable basis with other roads engaged in interstate traffic, was considered at some length yesterday morning by the State Corporation Commission. Representatives of the railroads were heard, but no action was taken. Consideration of the subject will be resumed probably to-day.

Youth Is Held. Harry Allen, fourteen years old, was yesterday arrested on a warrant, charging him with stealing a box of cakes from the Abram Sisters. He was taken to the Juvenile Detention Home pending his arraignment in the Juvenile Court.

Charge Auto Speeding. W. P. Atkinson, a merchant, was last night arrested by Bicycle Police man Clarke on a warrant, charging him with exceeding the speed limit in an automobile.

HOUSTON APPEALS FOR DIVERSIFIED CROPS IN SOUTH

Individual is the foundation of credit, and again it is almost a truism that credit extended shall be wisely used than that it shall be extended at all. The bankers and merchants should cooperate with the farmers in ascertaining what is the wisest use of credit, and in directing the application of capital and labor into the most fruitful channels.

"The hearty co-operation of individuals in the South of landowners and tenants, of all Southern organizations, bankers and merchants, is needed to bring about a better direction of Southern agricultural enterprise. If they should see fit at this time to follow such a constructive program as has been indicated, it would result, as a matter of course, that less labor and capital would go into cotton planting, and that the output of this particular crop in another year would be proportionately reduced, or that, in any event, the South could live at home and utilize what cotton it did produce as a cash asset. The Department of Agriculture is proposing this constructive plan to Southern farmers, bankers and merchants, and is suggesting it not only through its demonstrators, but through circulars. It has issued at least 50,000 of these circulars, and will continue its efforts in the direction of a pretty general acceptance of such a plan known to the public, as a matter of course, would afford the South a guarantee of subsistence in the near future, and would react on the present prices of cotton."

WITHOUT JURISDICTION

Court Dismisses Wireless Company's Application for Injunction. NEW YORK, October 8.—The Federal District Court ruled to-day that it had no jurisdiction in the suit brought against Secretary Daniels and four naval officers by the Marconi Wireless Telegraph Company of America to prevent the government from keeping closed the wireless stations at Siasconnet, Mass., and Seagate, N. Y. The company's application for an injunction was dismissed.

Although the application was dismissed, the suit still remains on the calendar. It is regarded unlikely, however, that it will be brought to trial.

The court was without jurisdiction, Judge Deeder held, inasmuch as none of the defendants or the plaintiff resides within this Federal district.

HEARS BROTHER IS ILL;

GRIEF CAUSES HER DEATH

Lucy Hodges, Well-Known Colored Woman, Dies 3 Hours After News Comes. News of the critical condition of her brother, who was reported dying in a hospital in Washington, was received by Mrs. Hodges, a colored woman, aged 74, 745 North Fifth Street, yesterday morning. An hour later she died of grief.

Lucy Hodges was one of the best known colored women in Richmond. She was the widow of Horace Hodges, for twenty-five years a coachman in the employ of the family of Emmanuel Raab. Since her husband's death she had been conducting a curtain laundry.

W. Andrew Johnson, her brother, who has been serving as a soldier in the United States Army for the last thirteen years, was stationed in the Philippines the greater part of that time, was sent home recently from his regiment. He was a patient in a government hospital in Washington when the message was received by his sister.

Giles B. Jackson, president of the Negro Industrial and Historical Exposition Company, called at the woman's home yesterday morning, about 9 o'clock, and found her in deep distress over the news she had received. He sought in vain to comfort her. Ten minutes after Jackson left the house Lucy Hodges was dead.

"She was devoted to her brother, and it was grief over his condition that killed her," said Jackson last night. She died of a broken heart. The doctor called it congestion of the brain, but it is perfectly plain to every one who knew the strong affection of Lucy Hodges for her soldier brother that it was her grief for him that killed her.

Lucy Hodges is survived by her brother and four sisters. The daughter is in New York, and has been summoned by telegraph. Funeral arrangements will be made when she arrives here to-day.

Appointed to West Point.

WASHINGTON, October 8.—The War Department announced to-day the appointment of Ernest L. Stevens, Martinsville, Va., for admission to the military academy in 1915.

Ernest L. Stevens, appointed for admission to the Military Academy yesterday at Washington, is the son of E. L. Stevens, a well-known citizen of Martinsville. He is twenty years old, and has had a graduation at the Martinsville High School, spent the past two years at V. P. I.

Woman Arrested.

Patrolman Rossett and Patrol Driver Metcalf last night arrested Viola Harrison, colored, on a warrant, charging her with cutting Kate Shelton. The officers were called to the vicinity of Fifteenth and Marshall Streets by the woman, who was in a general street fight. Upon arriving at the scene, the Harrison woman was seen running down the street. She was caught just after she was seen throw away a knife. Upon investigation, the police found that the knife was one of the kind used by shoe makers. The Shelton woman was in several places, but was not badly injured.

TRANSMITTED BY GERMS

Dr. Simon Flexner Announces Result of Study of Infantile Paralysis. BALTIMORE, Md., October 8.—Dr. Simon Flexner, head of Rockefeller Institute for Medical Research, speaking at the Johns Hopkins Hospital anniversary celebration here to-day, voiced the belief that he had cultivated the hitherto invisible germ which causes infantile paralysis, and had reproduced the disease in animals by injection of culture of this germ.

The doctor believed the disease was transmitted through the respiratory channel, rather than by insect, as some held, and he advanced the theory that healthy persons often carried the germ in their bodies and through them children were infected; that there were "carriers" of infantile paralysis just as there are "carriers" of typhoid and diphtheria, who, while transmitting these diseases to others, do not suffer from them themselves.

BOMBS DROPPED ON PARIS

One Wounded Three Persons, and Other Does No Harm. PARIS, October 8.—A German aeroplane flying over Paris and the suburbs of Aubervilliers and St. Denis at 9 o'clock this morning, dropped three bombs, one of which wounded three persons. The other did no harm.

Hostile aircraft have usually avoided Paris and vicinity early in the day because of dangerous atmospheric conditions. French troops stationed in the city and suburbs have been commanded not to fire upon the aeroplanes, because of the danger from falling bullets.
